

California State Council

Scholarship Application

2022

California ENA funds two scholarships to be awarded each year at the State level:

- The Terri Sturgill Scholarship is awarded to a non-nurse candidate who is enrolled in a nursing program and pursuing his or her initial RN license. This scholarship is named for a previous California leader from the Inland Empire Chapter who served at the Chapter, State and National level.
- The Daniel Kelleher Scholarship is awarded to a candidate who already possesses an RN license, is enrolled in a nursing program to advance his or her nursing education, and has shown commitment to the Emergency Nurses Association. This scholarship is named in honor of Judith Kelleher's husband, Daniel. Judith Kelleher was the co-founder of the Emergency Nurses Association.

Application Deadline: July 31, 2022

The application form must be submitted along with the following supporting documents to the State Council Immediate Past President. Incomplete applications will not be considered and will not be returned for completion.

Email completed application to: Past.President@californiaena.org

All application submission items above should be submitted to the State Council Immediate Past President by the designated deadline. No exceptions will be given on the above deadline. All information on this application form is subject to verification.
