

California ENA Education Committee proudly presents....

Emergency Update at Sea!

Come join the California ENA Education committee for a fun filled weekend at sea! We will depart Long Beach on August 9th immediately following the CalENA State Council Meeting (the CalENA State Council Meeting is being held at the Queen Mary, literally steps away from the Carnival Radiance boarding area).

Itinerary

Friday August 9th: Depart Long Beach at 1700

Saturday August 10th: A fun day at sea!

Sunday August 11th: Enjoy a day in Ensenada, Mexico from 0800-1700

Monday August 12th: Arrive back at Long Beach at 0700

Conference Details

Our education event will be a hybrid model with at home pre-cruise asynchronous education, coupled with a 5 hour session during the cruise which allows us to provide up to 10 contact hours!

Please note – the in person classroom portion will be held EITHER on board the ship during the sea day from 0830-1330 (1st choice), or on land in Ensenada on the port day (2nd choice) from 0830-1330. This will be determined after a minimum number of participants have booked the cruise in order to secure the appropriate conference space.
